

Student Organizer 3

Directions: The questions below are for use during the culminating activity. Feel free to add any additional questions to this list as you see fit.

1. Can dishonesty negatively affect an adult's life? If so, how?
2. Is it ever acceptable for parents to lie to their children? Why or why not?
3. If a child finds out that a parent lied to him or her, how might that child respond? Do you think the relationship between the parent and child would suffer?
4. What type of dishonest behavior occurs among adults in the workplace?
5. How is this behavior handled? Are there consequences?
6. Should dishonesty be tolerated in a marriage or other serious relationship? Why or why not?
7. What might happen if an adult lied to a police officer, a judge, or another figure of authority? Would they be punished?
8. What is the greatest lesson that young people should learn about honesty?

Close Window