

Student Organizer 4

Directions: Use the questions below as you complete the survey for the Culminating Activity. Feel free to add or modify questions as you see fit.

1. Are there ever times when you resist your parents' rules or requests? Which rules or requests are you most likely to challenge?
2. What are some of your reasons for being resistant to your parents?
3. What are the consequences for disobeying your parents? Are you ever grounded or punished? Do you have privileges taken away from you? Or, do your parents refrain from reprimanding you?
4. Why do you think your friends or peers resist their parents?
5. In your opinion, is it ever right for teens to disobey their parents? Why or why not?
6. If you generally choose to obey your parents, why do you do so?
7. Do your religious or cultural beliefs influence your desire to oppose your parents? How so?
8. Do you think your parents listen to you when you disagree with them? Do they communicate with you to better understand your feelings about their rules? Do their listening and communication skills influence your desire to obey or disobey them?
9. Do you think it's difficult for parents to deal with a teen who defies them often? Why or why not?
10. Do you think that resistance is an effective way to get what you want? Why or why not?
