

Religion and Me: Interview Questions

The following are sample questions you can pose. You are not limited to these, and are encouraged to create other questions.

1. What religion or spiritual tradition/institution are you connected with? If you are not involved with any formal religious or spiritual tradition/institution, in what ways do you seek and practice spirituality?
2. What drives your religious and/or spiritual involvement? Or, if you are not involved in religion or other spiritual practices, why not?
3. How is your religiosity or spirituality represented?
4. In what ways have your religious or spiritual beliefs and/or practices changed over the years?
5. In what ways has your respective religious or spiritual institution adapted to societal and cultural changes?
