

STUDENT ORGANIZER:

Research Topic A: Who Are the Jews?

Guiding Questions

1. What is the difference between a secular Jew and a religious Jew?
2. How is the growth in the number of secular Jews changing Judaism?
3. In the U.S., there are four movements in Judaism: Orthodox, Conservative, Reconstructionist and Reform. What do they have in common? How are they different?
4. Who is considered Jewish? How can a non-Jew become a Jew?

Close Window